Animated films are usually shown both in original and in Russian and dubbed into Estonian (or Russian in many cinemas). Most Estonian speakers. Among the Estonian animated films, films of the A-Film studio, the Estonian Polyphony, the Estonian Ego Animation, as well as Estonian animators from Sweden and Finland stand out. Many foreign films are shown in Estonia in dubbing. These are films from such countries as: Great Britain, USA, Germany, France, Italy and Russia. Most international animation festivals take place in Europe. The first of these was held in 1963 in Paris. Since then, there have been a lot of them.
